Crazy Auction Coming Dec 18

Looking for that PERFECT Christmas gift for you or someone you love? Then bring your gift items and your checkbook to this year's Crazy Auction. ALL members are encouraged to join in the fun. Fundraising from this event goes toward meeting expenses.

If we don't generate enough funds, the club may be forced to reduce expenses this year. Please bring a nice present and be willing to spend a suggested amount of at least $50.

New Billing Reminder...

Many members have outstanding balances. Our club started a new way of delivering invoices earlier this year. You should have received Rotary invoices electronically to your email. Please check to make sure it didn't get lost in your spam filter. The last invoices were sent in September. Please contact Chuck Snyder if you haven't received it, or to receive a copy.

Wolves To Help End Polio...

...The Chicago Wolves hockey team that is. Sunday, Jan. 24, 3 pm, DG Jim Czerwionka invites all Rotarians and their friends to attend a Rotary Night at The Allstate Arena including a fantastic fireworks and laser show. The package price of $28 goes toward your ticket to the game, a Wolves hat, a hot dog and drink, and a Wolves Bobblehead. Plus, $8 per ticket goes to Rotary's fight against Polio. For tickets call Bryan Brown at 847-832-1957

District Conference, 2010..

As the Early Bird discount deadline of Nov. 30th looms, here's a brief summary of the festivities. It will be at The Marriott Lincolnshire Resort, April 28-May 2. There will be a golf outing Friday, followed by a Business meeting and Dinner. At the dinner clubs will be given an opportunity to share their successes, and awards will be given. Saturday starts with a breakfast that will focus on youth programs such as RYLA, EarlyAct, Interact, and youth exchange. The traditional Foundation luncheon will include introductions of Ambassadorial and Peace scholars, and recognition of a number of Foundation awards. Recreation includes swimming, shopping, an EXPO, and
