tion can be directed to President Jerry Cierniak.

New Planning Committee...

President elect Mike Sedlak is back from P.E.T.S. He says that one of the points emphasized is a strategic planning committee, considering plans of 1 year, 3 years, and 5 years duration. Mike will chair. See him if you wish to be on this committee.

The Dictionary Project...

With the continued generosity of the Dictionary Project, Inc., District 6450 has been empowered and entrusted to deliver a dictionary to every third grader in the Chicago Public Schools THIS YEAR!

The district is looking for YOUR help. Volunteering is easy. Just go to www.rotarypower105.eventbrite.com and follow the instructions to sign up for the District 6450 CPS Dictionary Project. There you will learn more about how you can be a part of this awesome and rewarding community service project. They have the books, the schools and the children. All they need is you.
